REV. MR. WEBB'S WEDDING,-An Alexan dria correspondent of the Baltimore American. in describing the wedding of Rev. Mr. Webb. in this city, an account of which was published in yesterday's Gazette, says:

"A brilliant social event of interest to Baltimoreans occurred here this evening. Rev. Wm. C. Webb, who succeeded Dr. Guard as pastor of Mount Vernon Church, in your city, and afterwards was transferred here, where he remained two years, making hosts of friends, and it also seems losing his heart, was married at the Washington street M. E. Church by the Rev. Dr. Peck, of Baltimore, to Miss Susie Harmon, daughter of Mr. Allen C. Harmon, oue of the leading citizens of this city. The with flowers and bright foliage, and the assem-bled guests included several ladies and gentlemen from your city. Mrs. Dr. Poi-al, Miss Ann Earnest, Mrs. Dr. Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Morgan and other Baltimoreans were present. The Rev. Arthur Foster, of your city, and the Rev. Dr. Ames and the Rev. Joseph R. Wheeler, of Washington, were also there Af ter the ceremony there was a reception at the residence of the bride's father, after which Mr. and Mrs. Webb and a large party of friends left on the train for Baltimore. The bride and groom are en route for Indianapolis, Ind., where Mr. Webb is now stationed.

DEATH OF A FORMER ALEXANDRIAN. - The Vicksburg Commercial of the 13th inst., says:

"We regret' to chronicle the death of Col. Chas. E. Mount, who departed this life late last night, after an i lness of three weeks, at the residence of his son in-law, Maj. McDongal, on Randolph street. Col. Mount was approaching his sixty fifth year. He was a native of Alexandria, Va., and for many years a resident of this State and Louisiana, in each of which be was particularly distinguished and admired for his abilities as a lawyer and his qualities as a gentleman and a scholar.

Col. Mount was the son of the late Thomas Mount who did business in the store on King street now occupied by Mr. S. Lindheimer, and was the nephew of the late Dr. Sidney Smith, a so of this city.

BODY FOUND -Early this morning the lug Samuel Gedney, on her way up trom the fishing sheres, stopped at this city and reported that the dead body of a man was floating in the river between Jones' Point aud Fort Foote.-Messrs. Renard Poillips and John Stone at once started in a row boat, secured the body, and brought it to the lower shippard, were it was recognized as that of young Fisher, who was drowned some two weeks since. At the request of Fisher's relatives here Dr. R. C. Powell, coroner, beld an ir quest, and the jury. of which Mr. John Marriett was foreman, re turned a verdict of accidental drowning. The body was much decomposed and disfigured, and was turned over to the relatives of the deceased. who at once removed it to Broad Creek, Md., for interment.

Lynch Law.

A special despatch from Huntsville, Ala., dated yesterday, says:

Oa Saturday last, two negroes, named Eph Hall and Ben Evans, at the instigation of Mike White, a white butcher, doing business here, assassinated George Shoenberger, a rival butcher and a most prominent and estimable citi zen. At the time of their arrest, which took place the same day, great indignation was man ifested and there was believed to be strong probability that all three of the culprits would meet prompt punishment at the hands of the angry mob. By prompt and vigorous ac ion (f the Sheriff and his deputies the men were sately ledged in jail. This afternoon the three men wore forcibly taken from the Sherifi's custedy and hung from the limb of a tree, amid the most intense excitement. Early this morning people came in from every direction in throngs. By noon the streets, and especially those in the neighborhood of the jail, were literally packed. The Sheriff, who had, by his ecisive action on Saturday, prevented the sucremary puoishment of the assassios, attempt ed to summon guards for the protection of the jail, but none wou'd accept the positions .-Twenty or thirty United States prisoners being in the jai', the United States Marshal summoned guards to keep the m sife.

At half past one P. M. 12.9 people shouted 'Here they come!" and soon hundreds of horsemen arrived, a:m:d with doublebarrel shotguns. They came up quietly and took positions around the jail. The mulitude fell back as they approached. A demand for the keys of the ail was refused and the Sheriff could not be found. The jail fence was broken down with sledge hammers and crowbars. The mob then forced its way into jail by the same process. Evans, Hall and White were bound, placed in a wagon, driven half a mile away under the he would withdraw it from the present arrangelimb of a tree, where ropes had been previously adjusted. The negroes reiterated the same story of their guilt that they had already told.

Mike White protested his innecence. The prisoners were asked if they had anything to say. White said he had nothing to say except that he was innocent and ready to meet his God. Evans said, "I know I am here to die. We were all in it Hall shot the gun and I shot the pistol." Turning to White he said, "See Mr. White what you have brought me to." Hall sail he had nothing to say other than what he had before stated about his part in the assasination and White's instigation of it.

White said:—"God be with my wife."
Then they were asked if they would like to be proved for. White said No, but the negroes requested Rev. Mr. Gordon to offer a prayer, which no did. The wagon was then driven from They were cut down in twentyunder them.

ANOTHER CHURCH SCANDAL. - The Chicago Times publishes a dispatch from Detroit, showing that Bishop McCoskey, of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Michigan, was some time ago discovered to have been on term; of criminal intimacy with a young woman named Richards, of Detroit. She had been employed by him as a writer in his private study, where the intimacy commenced. A printer named George McConnell, a friend of Miss Richards, became jealous of the Bishop, and through him private letters in the Bishop's handwriting addressed to the woman full of expressions and allusions which were unmistakable admissions of guilty connections, reached the members of the vestry of the Bishop's church. The Bishop was confronted with evidences of his guilt, and his resignation demanded. The Bishop finally complied with this demand and resigned about a month ago with the understanding that the scandal should be supressed. He is now about to sail for Europe with his wife. The young woman was some months ago married off by the Bishop to a man in Detroi, who was deceived into the belief that she was the Bishop's relative and ward. It is hinted that there will be developments implicating the Bishop in other scandalous connections of a similar character. McCoskey became bishop of the diocese of Michigan in 1835.

Railroad Convention.

The representatives of a large number of To the editor of the Alexandria Gazette: Southern railroads met in Richmond yesterday for the purpose of revising the train schedule. A committee appointed to prepare a new schedule submitted the following report :-

force during the summer season. "Reselved, That the next meeting of the committee be held in New York, at the Wind

11 a. m. Mr. J. S. Barbour presented the following as a substitute :-"Whereas the interests of the cities of Balti more, Washington, Fredericksburg and Richmond, and the local interests of the country be ween Baltimore and Danville, via the Virginia Midland line, will be best subserved by a train leaving Washington at a reasonable hour in the morning, and still making the present connec tions to New Orleans and other Southern cities; therefore, to secure to these citities the facilities for passengers and mails to which they | racter.

are by their position entitled, it is "Resolved, That the present schedule be so modified as to make the Southern connection from New York by the train leaving there about 9 o'clock p. m., and leaving Washington about 7 o'clock a. m., and such other changes only as may be made necessary by this departure from schedule.' Mr. Barbour said that present arrangements might suit New York, but it did not suit Baitimore, Washington, Richmond or the people Senerally. He urged that Richmond papers wan'ed to get to Baltimore and Washington early in the day, instead of late in the evening. The present arrangement, he said, was an experiment, and one that had bee found to work badly. Mr. Bartour said if the report of the committee was adopted he would have to run his road as a local line, and he gave notice that ment after the first of May bext. He said it looked as if the Pennsylvania road had an interest somewhere else, and it was a well known old adage that "where the purse was, there was the heart." Col. Scott, he said, wanted a Texas Pacific railroad, but he thought that his representative should uso more delicacy in this matter, which was for the accommodation of the people of Virginia and the South generally. If their assistance was asked in that great enterprise he thought that there ought to be some sacrifices made for the general good in this matter, and he claimed that the old schedule should be resumed. He opposed the adoption of the report of the time table committee in a clear and able argument, which was listened to with great attention. In his remarks he pointed out the benefits to be derived by the proposed change of schedule to the people along the lines of roads running south from Washington, particularly in Virginia. Mr. Barbour said that Col. Vail, of the Postoffice Department, was in the city, and he thought that he should be invited to be present and give his views as to the manner the proposed change would effect the efficiency of the mail service. Mr. Bridges opposed the suggestion, and said

JAPANESE OR STOCK PEA.

This wonderfully prolific and nutritious Per grows on good soil to the height of about three feet, branches from the root to the top, and is literally covered with pods. The yield is three or four times as great as corn. Horses, cattle sheep and hogs devour it with avidity, and increase in fish rapidly. The stalk and leaves, both as an improver of the sell and as food for stock, are considered very valuable. A limited quantity for sale by JAMES P. MACHEN Grange Agent, 27 King street, Alexandria, Va.
